ACTIVITY ON WATERFRONT

Whether to put the boat in the water for the season, or to prepare for the race to Bermuda, the pace has been busy at Burr's in Marion, where we took these photos, and at all the local boatyards. Rain or shine, the season approaches and the season is short. It was an empty harbor just a month ago but not any longer in both Marion and in Mattapoisett.

It will be off to Bermuda, this coming Friday for the Bermuda Cruising Yacht Race and it surely is a great sight on a brisk sunlit day with the white sails against the sea and sky.

Good sailing, all.

Golf Course Plan Approved

MATTAPOISETT SELECTMEN'S MEETING
JUNE 13, 1989-by VIRGINIA MORGAN

Selectmen were notified at their regular meeting last Tuesday by the Planning Board that the board has voted 5 to 0 to approve the Hingham based Keller Company Inc. Mattapoisett Golf Community (Nunes Farm) Preliminary Plan Review submitted to them on April 28. The plan was prepared by Sasaki Associates, Inc.

The approval is subject to certain modifications that have been agreed upon by the Keller representatives. They include: right-of-ways and utility easements are to be put in writing; services such as snow plowing, trash pickup are subject to the Selectmen's approval or other appropriate boards and availability of funds; an undersized lot should be addressed to the Zoning Board of Appeals; a definitive plan should have street names.

The Planning Board also agreed to grant requested waivers, such as use of the railroad bed for access to the northerly lots. The development of these lots is subject to town permission and must be brought before the Selectmen for approval. Any alterations or modifications must be cleared with the Selectmen. Certain other waivers were granted concerning the right-of-way.

In other business, Selectmen:

APPROVED a new all-alcoholic beverage license to Mr. David G. Furtado for the operation of "Antone's Restaurant" at 79 Fairhaven Road (the former Gaetano's Restaurant). Representing Mr. Furtado was Attorney Robert G. Moore who said Mr. Furtado is president, treasurer and one of the directors of "Antone's Restaurant", and that all abutters were notified of the hearing.

Mr. Furtado said a new septic system is being installed. The restaurant will serve basically the same menu as the previous business. He noted this is a new venture for him. No opening date was announced.

APPOINTED Fay Silveira as a matron for the Police Department, at the recommendation of Police Chief James F. Moran.

MET WITH Mr. Al Tatro of 10 Jowick Street regarding his opposition to bicycle ramps on Jowick Street near his home. He claimed ramps are a hindrance to vehicles and recently had to be removed to make room for a school bus. He said he reported the situation to the police department and when officers responded he was told

Budget Reduction Sessions

JUNE 13 and 14, 1989-by VIRGINIA MORGAN

"No dollars, no beaches" was the comment of Selectman John N. DeCosta, as the Board of Selectmen held their first of several sessions with department heads in an effort to reduce the town budgets across the board to allow for the defeat of the operational override at the polls on June 6th when $448,538.50 was sought to continue services.

Selectmen Chairman Bernard F. Talty displayed on the wall two charts - one describing the fiscal 1989 budgets over $50,000, the fiscal 1990 budgets voted at the May annual town meeting, and the difference of the two which showed increases in most departments. The chart showed the savings of level funding of these departments would only save about $270,519 not the $373,538 needed to cover the budget without cuts. The second chart listed 19 services termed to be non-essential and the dollar amount that could be saved if they were eliminated. Passage of the override would add 69 cents per thousand to the tax rate. This could be less, depending on state aid.

An announcement was made that a Special Town Meeting would be held at 7:30 p.m.

Tuesday, June 27th, at ORR High School to consider an override of the town operational budget, after discussion on the floor of the proposed cuts; and an article placed by Police Chief James F. Moran to seek approval to transfer unencumbered funds from fiscal 1989 Police Officers Account for the purchase of two police cruisers with a trade-in, for $26,200. (This article was passed at the annual town meeting but defeated at the polls for an override.)

Also announced was the date of July 11 for the election of the override question of the budget. This was rescheduled from the previously announced June 28 date, as the time was not sufficient for advertising and printing. Town Clerk/ Town Administrator Lois K. Ennis stressed that voters who will be out of town on July 11 should get an absentee ballot to be sure their opinions are registered.

Also, the special town meeting on June 27 will include the articles postponed from the June 7 special town meeting.

TUESDAY - The Mattapoisett School Committee met with the Selectmen in an effort to reduce its budget to level funding - $213,000 will have to be reduced.

School Committee Chairman Clara D. Morgan opened the session with the comment, "We are going to drop a monkey wrench in your budget reduction plan, as we are asking for an increase to the budget of $44,000. This is for two special needs students we were not aware of when the budget was prepared. One student will cost $26,000, the other $18,000; these costs are state-mandated and we have no control over them."

The Selectmen's office and standees in the hall listened as Chairman Morgan outlined what cost cuts could be made, admittedly at a hardship for the school system. Maintenance - $16,600; not hire one new teacher for Grade I, estimated $22,000; no salary increases for teachers and non-teaching personnel, estimated at $80,000 (teacher contract negotiations are still in progress); music and art time and supplies, $5,900; books, library items, about $41,000.

Chairman Talty told school committee members they will have to come up with a total of $213,00 in cuts - these cuts only reflect $165,500, before the June 27 meeting.

Chairman Morgan noted the Mattapoisett school system spends less for education per pupil than the state average, and the town is getting an excellent school system.

School Committee Member Maureen Best replied to a question as to why the region schools don't share in the deficit, saying, "The ORR budget is legally controlled by a vote of three towns - if two vote we have to go along even though Mattapoisett might not vote for raises. We did not vote for the assistant superintendent (our share $10,000) and clerical help ($5,000 our share) but we have to pay that salary plus the 6½ percent pay raises at the region."

A woman commented she felt the majority of voters thought the town was asking for $400,000 for a rainy day. She felt the Selectmen should publish the list of just where the cuts will be made - print numbers.

Town Accountant Karen Long noted budget hearings start in January and the public is invited to hear what cuts are made TUESDAY - The Recreation Department with John Shockro Director, saying, "We are losing some beach personnel. They have to know whether they have jobs or not or they will go elsewhere".

Selectmen noted the recreation budget of $44,347 covers not only the beach program but the arts and crafts summer program at Center School grounds and the girls' softball team and other programs. It was noted programs will be conducted (not the beach) on the fiscal 1989 budget until July 11; after that, if no budget is voted, all will be eliminated.

Selectmen will check with Town Counsel on the liability to the town posting with signs, BEACH CLOSED. If there are no lifeguards, the Selectmen feel chains will have to be put up to prevent access to the beach.

WEDNESDAY - Police Department Budget - Police Chief James F. Moran defended his fiscal 1990 budget as it stands $31,450 over level funding from the 1989 budget.

Chief Moran outlined several ways to offset the increase, stressing, "I want to do other things than cut personnel." He listed $19,000 operational expenses for the new police station; $7,500 in buy-back sick leave time for a retiring officer, totalling $26,400., He noted $2,200 for the safety officers' time spent in the schools talking to students and bicycle inspections could be eliminated. The Chief said, "I think you will hurt public safety if we cut services."

He explained , "We run the ambulance

The Chief explained that on the day shift there are five officers, including himself; the second shift has two officers and the third shift, a patrolman, desk man and an officer. "I believe the Water Street walking beat until 2 a.m. is very important from Memorial Day to Labor Day which covers the center of town and the wharf area." He noted perhaps organizations that run the July 4th road race and the harbor days could pay for police coverage, as "we have to have an ambulance on duty during these events".

The Chief was directed to itemize where he felt cuts could be made and report by June 27.

WEDNESDAY - Board of Health Chairman Daniel C. Lee explained three areas are covered by his department - sanitary landfill, Public Health Nurse, and rubbish collection. The landfill budget is up only $3,663 which covers wage increases where "we have no control".

Chairman Lee explained the Public Health Nurse's salary is level funded and the expenses are below last year. "We are getting a lot for so little, the budget is only $11,238," he said.

Public Health Nurse Ellen Boyd said tuberculosis and communicable disease testing is state-mandated - the vaccines are free but "we pay for syringes". A small fee is collected for flu shots. She described her over 700 home visits each year to the chronically ill, frail people, blood pressure clinics and Wareham's well-baby clinic as part of her duties. A public health nurse service is also state-mandated, she noted, but not state-funded.

Board of Health Member Evelyn Ellis, who is also with the Fairhaven Community Nurses which serves Mattapoisett, asked Fairhaven if they could cover Ellen's services in Mattapoisett and they said no. Fairhaven covers certified billable services; whereas Mattapoisett's services are paid by contribution and not bills to patients.

Chairman Lee described the $64,381 rubbish contract as a bargain from much higher bids received; the agreement covers delivering to SEMASS as of August 11, 1989. "If we fail to honor the contract we could be liable for a law suit to cover the contractors' expense in setting up the job." The Board of Health was instructed to prepare their recommended cuts before June 27th.

urging the Selectmen not to eliminate a part-time director and leave the $21,075 budget intact. The budget covers not only the part-time director but also the senior van driver. She noted the small amount of about $400. in expenses wouldn't make much of change in the overall budget.

Chairman Lynch also noted the council is returning $4,800 to the town treasury from the 1989 budget because the part-time director did not work the entire year.

A prepared statement by the Council and read by Chairman Lynch read, in part, "I represent 1531 voters of the town who are senior citizens, approximately 25 percent of the permanent population. A proposal to eliminate the part-time director of the Council on Aging, for a savings of about $7,000 is, in our opinion, a short-sighted and unknowing proposal to leave our senior citizens with no permanent town office.

"The citizens of this town voted in a special town election on September 27, 1988 to establish the position of director because they agreed that the office could not be properly handled by volunteers alone. In addition to the daily work of the director, more than 5,000 volunteer hours are required to serve our elders. No other town department can point to a record like that. A point that seems to be misunderstood is that the senior van is the property of Coastline

I believe I can proudly say that every dollar dedicated to our seniors has been well spent."

Among the comments from the small group attending Wednesday, Harvey Blanchette felt the seniors didn't realize the importance of the article. "We need better communication and education on the articles." Ralph Eustis, a Finance Committee member, in noting this meeting was called to inform the citizens of a near-crisis situation, commented on the small turnout of concerned citizens.

Health Board Member Ellis proposed a daytime informational session open to the public to be held at Village Court to get information to the seniors who often do not go out at night.

Selectman John N. DeCosta agreed to conduct a session on Friday, June 23rd, at Village Court.

Whaling featured at Museum

Did you know that during the Whaling Era of this country that Mattapoisett was world-renowned for the ships that were built in its many shipyards?

From Shipyard Lane to Camp Massasoit the harbor was edged with shipyards that proudly turned out those beautiful ships of another era. The wharves that we know today are the remains of those yards.

The Historical Society is planning an exhibit for the month of July depicting the wooden shipbuilding era featuring the tools, models and demonstrations.

Put a visit to the Museum at Church and Baptist Streets on your calendar for some afternoon in July.

"Side by Side by Sondheim"

The Marion Art Center will open its summer cabaret theater production of "Side by Side by Sondheim" this Thursday, June 22nd, at 8:30 p.m. The show offers 33 songs from thirteen of Stephen Sondheim's musical shows.

This production will continue June 23 - 25, 29 - 30 and July 1 - 2. All evening performances begin at 8:30 p.m., and the two Sunday shows feature a 4:30 matinee curtain. Tickets for this most special theatrical experience can be reserved by calling the Art Center at 748-1266. For members, the price is $10, and general admission is $15. As seating is limited, reservations are highly recommended.

"Side by Side" is richly melodic, featuring the best known compositions of this master craftsman of musical theater. Sondheim's lyrics are often regarded as the best ever written for the stage. The cast of six are among the most versatile performers in our area. Musical direction is by Paul Sardinha, and the entire production is directed by David B. Boyce, the same team responsible for the sold-out hit production of "Cole", presented at the Art Center three years

Humor filled the hall at Century House last Thursday as Carol J. Adams reigned as queen at a farewell party given by her many friends and co-workers. Carol has resigned as Executive Secretary to the Mattapoisett Board of Selectmen after 17 years with the town and will begin her new job as office manager to the Keller Company's Mattapoisett office.

Carol seemed to be having as much fun giving presents, admittedly joke presents, to her co-workers as she did in receiving the many gifts. Selectman John N. DeCosta emceed the party.

The gift of a matched set of Titleist golf clubs from all who attended the party will go along with the gift of a golf bag from the Board of Selectmen. Presented by Chairman Bernard F. Talty, who said he was the youngest member (in service presented her with a citation from the State House signed by Representative John C. Bradford and himself.

On a lighter note, Marc Goddu, owner of the Mattapoisett Inn, said he met Carol 12 years ago and she made him feel at ease in the Selectmen's office. He said people came in angry and left with a smile; she created a feeling of Mattapoisett is special. He gave Carol fun things from his wife Marlene, Rosemary Boling, a friend, and himself consisting of assorted items of clothing and joke gifts for her new car and new office. "These girls love to shop", he said.

"I collect clowns", Carol explained as she opened gifts of clown figurines from the girls at Town Hall and Elaine and Al Sylvia. A gift of a glass carafe from the Board of Appeals members was presented in their absence as hearings were being held that night.

Selectman William F. Hubbard, who has worked with Carol the longest, presented a certificate in recognition of years of service. "It is hard not to shed tears; Carol is one of my nicest and truest friends. Keller will make out well with Carol's efforts. We will miss her."

Also speaking in honor of Carol were two former Selectmen, Frank M. Suzan and James F. Huntoon. Mr. Huntoon read poems of his own creation, one dealing humorously with town "grumblers and complainers" and one entitled "That's Carol".

Town Administrator Lois K. Ennis told Carol, "We've had good times and interesting work in the office and out; we are really going to miss you and we will call on you when we can."

Festive purple balloons and streamers decorated the hall as Selectman DeCosta greeted the surprised Carol with a corsage as she was accompanied by her husband, Bob. She said she was overwhelmed at the large attendance to wish her well in her new job.

Guests introduced were Julia Enroth, former Rochester Selectman and now Town Administrator in Wellfleet; Steven Lombard, former Mattapoisett Executive Secretary and now Executive Secretary in the Town of Norton; and Joseph Murphy, Town Manager in Wellfleet.

Carol said "I'd like to give out some joke gifts to special people before I cry" - packages of "quit cigarettes" to the girls in the smoking room at Town Hall; flash math cards for when she gets frustrated with the budget to Town Accountant Karen Long; cans of paint and brushes to paint the restrooms at Ned's Point to Selectmen Talty and DeCosta, who have been threatening to paint them; a framed "Honest to God" saying, one often used by Selectman Hubbard; a book on stress in dealing with men to Police Officer Janet Kennedy; albums of photos of funny personal situations to Lt. James A. Santos, Sgt. Edwin Pina and Kenneth Pacheco of the Police Department; gum to Evelyn Ellis who left gum for Carol; packages of cigarettes to Donald C. Wood, who has threatened to Moran and a toy police cruiser.

Selectman DeCosta said the girls at Town Hall deserve credit for arranging the party. A cake decorated with "Good Luck, Carol" was made and donated by the Mattapoisett Inn; and Carol shared it with all her well wishers on Friday in the Selectmen's office. Her last day at Town Hall will be June 29th.

Letter to the Editor

I thought residents might like to know about the progress of the Post Office renovations. In July 1988 the Postal Department informed us that they were awarding us the contract to go ahead with expansion plans. Authorization to proceed was continually postponed and in October, after the tabling of the Marion office, we were notified that all projects were on hold until a master plan was developed for the tri-town area.

I am hopeful that other issues will be resolved and approval will be forthcoming in the near future. We look forward to the opportunity to remedying the traffic congestion as well as revitalizing the facilities.

The Carriage Shed is in the process of being rebuilt. A new walkway from the parking area is completed with drainage system for the west wall of the church.

Certainly a great deal has been accomplished in one year. The first year of the three year Capital Fund Drive raised $45,000.00 of our $150,000.00 goal from church members and interested and caring town residents.

Work has now started on the front (south) side of the church including the steeple and roofing. Considerable rot and general deterioration are prevalent in this area. Financial support to complete the Capital Fund Drive to restore, improve and preserve this historical 1842 edifice has been activated for the 1990/1991 years,

PAUL C. BIERINGER 758-6772

Each year the association takes this opportunity to recognize staff members who are retiring and to present the Friend of Education Award.

Barbara Macy, retiring student accountant, was one of two guests honored by the Association. For many years Mrs. Macy has been responsible for handling the numerous accounts for student activities. Mrs. Macy has worked diligently and patiently with student treasurers and advisors. Her services will be missed.

The 1989 Friend of Education Award was presented to Patricia Ryan of Rochester. Mrs. Ryan served on the regional school committee for thirteen years until she retired in April. ORPEA President Janis Andrews Johnson expressed the gratitude of the association for Mrs. Ryan's many years of service. Ms. Johnson thanked Mrs. Ryan for her commitment to the students of the district and her concern for the overall well-being of the school system. BIG BUS DAY TRIP

On Tuesday, July 25th, Continental Cablevision of Marion is planning a trip to the Barnstable Fair for the seniors of Marion, Mattapoisett, Rochester and Wareham. Continental Cable would like to tape the area citizens at this famous fair.

If enough of Mattapoisett seniors are interested, a big bus will pick them up at 7:30 a.m. at St. Anthony's parking lot. This early pick-up is planned so an early start will beat the crowds, and to have plenty of time at the fair before a 2 o'clock departure for home.

Lunch is on your own. You can purchase food at the fair or bring your own. There are picnic tables aplenty, with plenty of shade trees for resting spots.

Please respond by June 30th so we can help with the plans for this very interesting day. There will be no charge for the seniors for admission or for transportation.

Fair Magic Thank You

The Mattapoisett P.T.C. "Fair Magic" was a tremendous success thanks to the many parents and community helpers who shared their time and talents. We thank you all; without your help, the "magic" would not have been there!

recognition of four etchings made by the late Lemuel D. Eldred, a talented artist and a native of Fairhaven. The etchings have been donated to the town by the Improvement Association. The etchings were restored by Preservationist Robert Hauser of the Old Dartmouth Historical Society, with a grant from Fairhaven Arts Council.

The annual fair is the single fund-raiser of the Fairhaven Improvement Association. Among the association's annual contributions to the town is a student scholarship, a tree planting program which enables town residents to buy trees for their property at half-price, a summer music program at Cushman park, special programs and a fall testimonial dinner honoring an outstanding resident.

Susan Benjamin is chairman of the 1989 fair with William McAfee in charge of entertainment. Dr. Martha Cummings is association president. The association's booth at the fair will feature the sale of 1990 calendars depicting six buildings given to Fairhaven by Henry Huttleston Rogers, T-shirts and plants.

Rare Vintage Films

The Fairhaven Colonial Club is pleased to announce that rare vintage films will for the first time be available to the public in its video entitled The Colonial Club Presents.

The video is a compilation of the club's antique 8-millimeter films, which depict many community and social events held in the Town of Fairhaven dating back to the turn of the century. A trip down memory lane is in store for all who have ties to Fairhaven and who may discover family members, friends or their old neighborhoods on this film.

Look for the club's booth outside of the Millicent Library at the Fairhaven Homecoming Fair on Saturday, June 24th, where the videos will be on sale at $20. each. With a limited edition planned, they are destined to become collectors' items. Proceeds from the sale will go toward the restoration and maintenance of the Coggeshall Memorial Building.

In 1916 Mrs. Martha Coggeshall, a native of Fairhaven and a member of the club, bequeathed her homestead at Six Cherry Street, Fairhaven, together with all its beautiful furnishings, to the Col-for $7.95 sq. yd. . .

Being in the carpet business for over 10 years does have its advantages. We have found a way to offer a selection as wide as that of our competitors, at lower prices. The "way" is simple. Our costs are lower.

We've noticed that the public tends to assume that bigger "must" be better. In the carpet business, this has traditionally meant that a wide selection and lower prices can only be possible through a large inventory. This simply isn't true.

At Carpet Mart we order, direct from top manufacturers, only the carpets that our customers want. With no major inventory costs, and no middlemen, we are able to pass the savings on to our customers.

Persons needing to reach the hospital for emergency purposes during the 15 minute interval should call their local police departments. New Bedford and area town police departments have been alerted to the situation and will be able to contact the hospital in the event of an emergency.

This brief inconvenience to callers is necessary to upgrade the hospital's telephone service and increase incoming capacity from 20 to 25 lines. When completed, the expanded system will alleviate the problem of encountering a busy signal when calling the hospital because the number of incoming lines had been insufficient to meet the demand.

From Old Colony

PRESENTATION ON CAREER CHOICES

Sixth grade students at Rochester Memorial Elementary School heard a presentation on Career Choices by Georgene Drewniak, Outreach Recruiter at Old Colony Regional Vocational Technical High School. Included was a video entitled "You Can Do It" which addresses the importance of technology education to college-bound students and students who will enter vocational training as well as those beginning careers immediately after high school.

Tara Medeiros, a junior in the Date Processing Department at Old Colony, displayed some of her work and explained how the program prepared students for careers from Data Entry Operator to Systems Analyst.

Aucoot Cove Test Results

Save Our Seas (S.O.S.), a subcommittee of the Marion Conservation Commission formed to clean up sources of marine water pollution, has completed the first round of bacterial testing in Aucoot Cove. These tests were paid for by donations from concerned citizens in the area. Thirty-five sampling stations in Mattapoisett and Marion were selected following a March shore walk to identify spots where fecal coliform contamination might be entering this estuary. Fecal coliform are bacteria found in the intestinal tracts of warm blooded animals and are an indicator of pollution used by the Department of Marine Fisheries to evaluate an area's safety for shellfishing. Areas with fecal coliform counts above 14 per 100 milliliters of water are closed, as Aucoot Cove was last June. The state recommends closing an area to swimming if the count exceeds 200.

At the end of April, volunteers from both Mattapoisett and Marion collected water samples, once after a spell of dry weather and again following a rainy period. For the dry weather testing, most stations had fecal coliform counts below detectible limits, except for the mouth of the brook that drains Marion's sewer treatment plant. Sampling points further upstream, however, were negative, all the way to the chlorination station at Route 6. S.O.S. feels that geese in the area may have contributed to this one high count.

Sampling after heavy rains at the beginning of May produced different results, with some stations reporting fecal coliform counts as high as 490. Areas with positive results include the brackish water found in the marsh along the Cove's Marion shore and Hiller's Cove Brook in Mattapoisett. Another round of testing was completed on these areas, but this time searching for a different type of bacteria specific to humans, not animals (dogs, geese). The results indicate that the source of bacteria is human, possibly from septic systems or cesspools that have failed or have been installed in the ground water.

S.O.S. plans more testing of the Cove's waters in June and at the end of August to help determine the effect of the increased summer population and the presence of boats in the Cove. Also, the committee plans to test stations across the mouth of the Cove to see whether some contamination might be carried in by currents from distant sources.

S.O.S. recently was awarded a $20,000 grant from the Buzzards Bay Project (an Environmental Protection Agency sponsored group) to continue its study of water pollution throughout Marion's waters. Over the next three years, S.O.S. will extend its study to Sippican Harbor, Wings Cove and the Weweantic and Sippican Rivers. The committee is seeking project managers for each of these embayments, as well as additional volunteers for the summer water sampling in Aucoot Cove. Interested persons should attend S.O.S.'s next meeting on Thursday, June 22nd, at 7:30 p.m. in the Marion Town House or call Chairman Georgia McDonald at 748-0040 to volunteer.

Mattapoisett River Dredging?

Alewives Anonymous Inc., a corporation founded for the protection and preservation of the herring rivers of the area, will hold a meeting at the Rochester Grange Hall, Hartley Road, Rochester at 7:30 p.m. June 22nd.

The purpose of the meeting is to receive "input" from the Cranberry growers and property owners along the riverway. At the present time the river between Snipatuit Pond and Snipatuit Road is not passable even in a small canoe.

It is our belief that this condition impedes the passage of the herring going upstream to spawn and causes a great loss in the number of spawned fish trying to return to the ocean waters.

We propose sending out bids to dredge the riverway between the pond and Snipatuit Road. There is equipment available and able to traverse the riverway opening up a canal approximately ten feet wide and up to six feet deep. One dredging company has informed us they could do the work for approximately $15,000.00.

Over the years the Tri-towns (Marion, Mattapoisett and Rochester) have accumulated over $10,000 in the herring rivers improvement account from the annual appropriation of $300.00. Alewives Anonymous is able to fund the balance.

Our question is, what if any effect would dredging of the river have on the operations of cranberry growing?

Cranberry growers and others who could be affected by such dredging are urged to attend the meeting. Their input will be evaluated before any work is done and due consideration taken of their concerns.

The Massachusetts Division of Marine Fisheries will have a representative at the meeting and the Herring Inspectors of the three towns and Boards of Selectmen are urged to attend.

Coffee and refreshments will be served at the conclusion of the meeting.

For further information call Selectmen, Rochester Town Hall, 763-3871, or Bill Watling, 763-2019.
